The Southern Observatory for Human Rights presents its compliments to the esteemed United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights.

The Southern Observatory would like to inform you that forces of the Yemeni regime opened fire on Saturday, October 29, 2011 on a peaceful march organized by the peaceful Southern Movement in the city of Mukalla in Hadramaut Governorate, southern Yemen, caused the death of a young boy called Abdullah Muftah Al-Hamed, aged 16 years, and several other demonstrators suffered injuries.

Through this communiqué, the Southern Observatory asks the High Commissioner to examine the this crime of unjustified murder and to intervene with the Yemeni government to stop what has been committed by its troops of excessive suppression against the peaceful marches and the use of live bullets to disperse peaceful protesters as a consistent pattern of gross violations against the rights of the citizens in southern Yemen.

The Southern Observatory for Human Rights finds these violations extrajudicial murders which are outside the scope of the judiciary practiced against peaceful demonstrators who conduct their right of expressing their legitimate demands.

The Southern Observatory (SOHR) takes this opportunity to express to the Office of the esteemed High Commissioner its sincere appreciation and respect.
